The atmosphere was festive as balloons and flowers were sold at the 10th annual Homecoming with "The Wonderful World of Disney" as this year's theme. To help promote spirit, the alumni drill team and varsity cheerleaders came back to perform. Also this year for the first time the alumni band members returned to perform.

At halftime, Mickey and Minnie Mouse were on hand to help the Homecoming candidates out of the antique cars. The crowd cheered when Dan Grable and Sally Morehouse were crowned as our '79-80 Homecoming King and Queen.

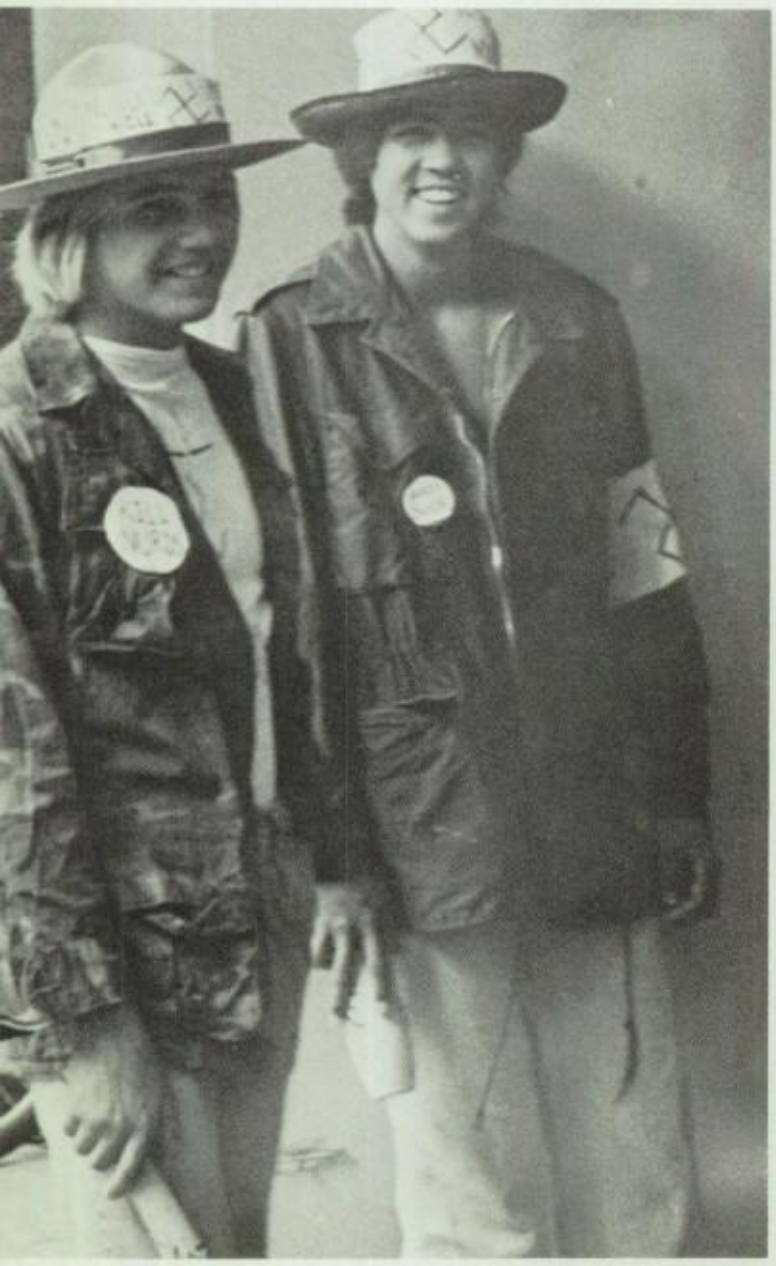
Seniors 'Wrap' Up Spirit



Nerd patrolers senior Marc Hoefnagels and junior Frank Marcos help control the nerds on Nerd Day.

By struggling hard to overtake a reputation they received three years ago as being a rinky-dink class, the class of '80 pulled through and won Spirit Week disproving their reputation that they once had.

The seniors fought a hard battle receiving 101 points, with the juniors trailing behind with 86 points. The sophomores struggled for third place receiving 32 points over the freshmen's 24 points.

The freshmen day was Sporto Day and the licorice kiss was their activity. Sophomores day was Sloppy Joe Day and they chose the lap sit and the toilet paper wrap for their events. L.A. students doctored it up on the juniors' Doctor Day. Juniors picked the balloon toss and the pie eating contest for their day. Senior day was Nerd Day and they chose the tug-of-war as their event. The last day was Disney Day and class competition was the event.

Senior Ron Record and Suzanne Slabotzky work together to claim a kiss at the end of the licorice rope.

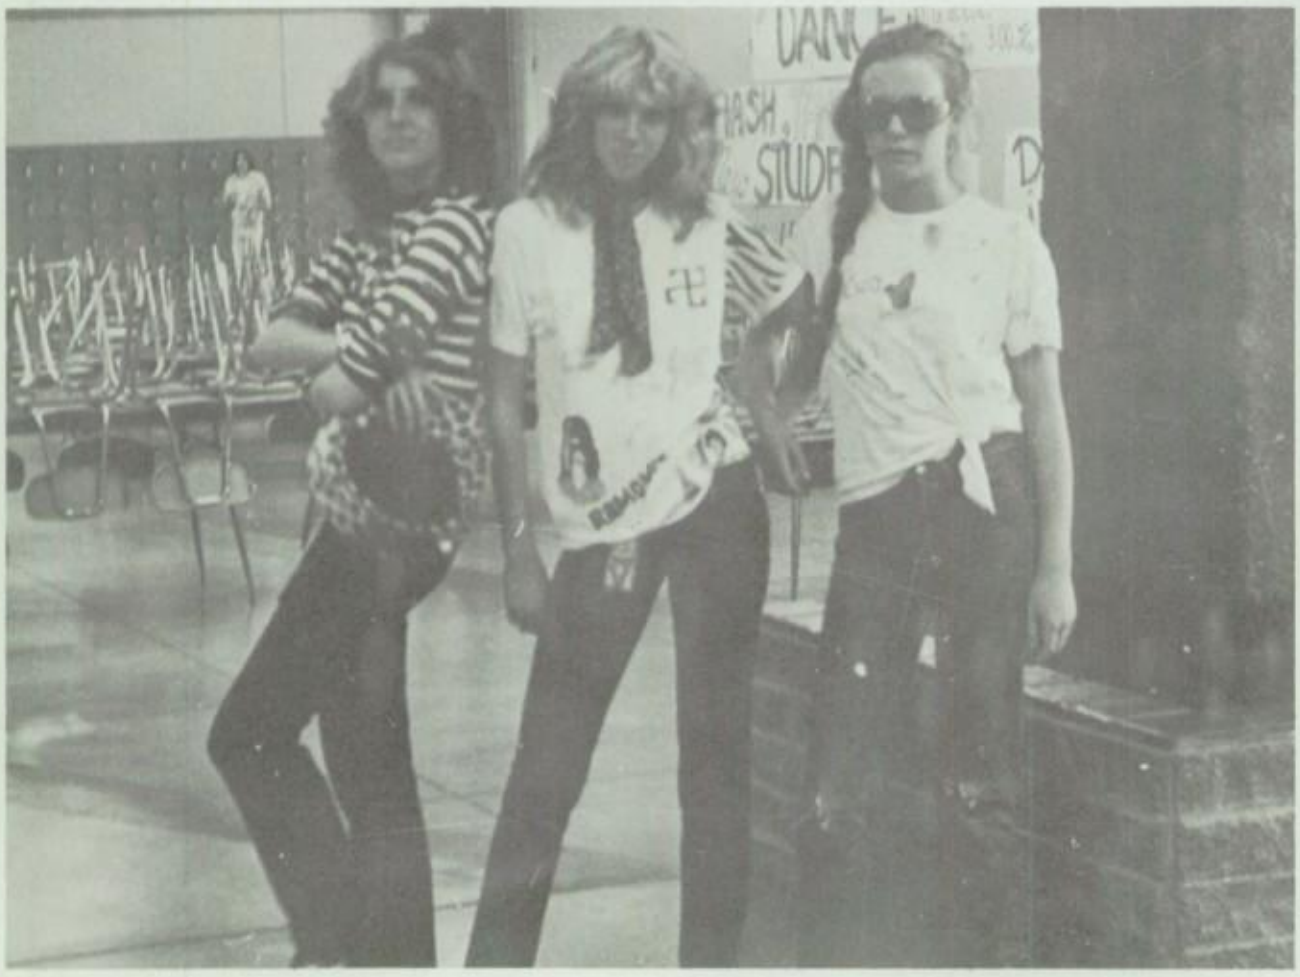
Week With a Big Tug

Sophomores Kevin Hyer and Chris Leibow struggle hard to try and overtake the opposing team in the tug-of-war competition during Spirit Week.

Junior Steve Day attempts catching the water balloon before it hits the ground.

Sophomores Molly Talbot, Kim Bell and Darlene Bennett PUNK it up during Spirit Week.



Lobos Defeat Santiago

The Homecoming assembly started as a success when Mickey and Minnie Mouse appeared at the affair. Drill Team did a routine to the Disneyland parade music, and the songleaders performed to the Mickey Mouse club music. We all roared with laughter when seniors Dan Ausmus, Alex Castaneda, Dan Grable, Ron Record, and Chris Walker came dressed as cheerleaders and attempted some of our more favorite cheers. The Flag, Banner, Band, and the majorette performed at the assembly too.

The football team went on to defeat Santiago with a score of 23-13. Afterwards we danced the night away to the sounds of Phoenix at a semi-formal dance held at the Garden Grove Community Center.

Here Comes Santa Claus

I want a kleenex, please.

Gi'me Cheryl Tiegs and I won't ask for anything else.

"Ho ho ho" cried Santa as he flew in through the gymnasium doors at the Christmas assembly. Pulled by his five tiny reindeer, Santa, portrayed by counselor Lon Tuin, spread cheer to all. As he flew by, the band played Christmas carols. The traditional tree trimming was done by the class presidents and ASB president Michelle Pompeo placed the star on top. Santa then took orders from children from Northcutt, Elementary and from some of our own Lobo students. As he was leaving, he was heard saying "Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night."

The band plays carols under direction of Jeff Janke.

The number of Vietnamese students in Los Amigos High School has been constantly increasing in the last few years and has reached 27 at the present. To accommodate their needs, the Vietnamese Club was formed in January. The club aimed to provide an opportunity for those with the same cultural background to socialize and participate in ethnic activities. The main purpose of the club was to preserve the Vietnamese culture among Vietnamese students, and to help American students become familiar with and appreciate the Vietnamese culture.

The first group function was the celebration of the Lunar New Year. The festival was held on February 8 with a two-hour presentation from several high schools which have Vietnamese Clubs: Fountain Valley, Santa Ana, Saddleback, Tustin, and Valley. The program included folk dances, folk songs, the playing of native instruments, and demonstrations of native games and pastimes.

L.A. Fashion Trends

Keeping up with the latest fashion isn't always the easiest thing to do, but it's fun!

Fashion is clothes, accessories, hair, cosmetics, and a person's own individual style. Designer jeans, straight-legged or pleated, in every color in the rainbow came in and stayed throughout the year. Shoes became casual with the lower heel, and western style and calf-length boots walked into the scene, too. Hair was braided up, down, and even all around to creat any look wanted.

Last, but not least, what have our Lobo guys been wearing? O.P., Lightning Bolt, Golden Wave, and Left Bank were just a few of the popular casual fashions, and for a more dressy look, pleated pants with a tailored shirt.

Great Entertainment

T.V. and movies are America's first when it comes to entertainment, and it's not just for young people. There are t.v. shows and movies to suit everyone in the family, from Grandma and Grandpa down to little brother and sister. Among the top new shows are "Buck Rogers in the 25th Century," "The Misadventures of Sheriff Lobo," "Real People," "Benson," "240-Robert," "Young Maverick," "Eischied," and "Shirley." Still in the top ratings are last year's "Mork and Mindy," "B.J. and the Bear," "WKRP in Cincinnati," "Dukes of Hazard," & "Mr. Bill of Saturday Night Live." who also has his own movie.

In the movies this year there were a lot of duds as well as hits. Among the top rated movies were "When a Stranger Calls," "The Rose," "Meatballs," Steve Martin's, "The Jerk," "Alien," "Star Trek," "Amittyville Horror," "Meteor," and Dan Aykroyd and John Belushi's, "1941."

Nora Takimoto danced to "I've Got No Strings" from the play "Pinnochio," Kim Skvarla danced to the song "I Hope I get It" from "Chorus Line." Henry White played and sang a song that he wrote himself, "Humble Yourself In the Name of the Lord."

ORGANIZATIONS

The ASB cabinet and various leadership members went to Leadership Camp at the University of California Santa Barbara during the '79 summer for a week.

This year leadership was involved with various activities such as the planning of dances and assemblies, Spirit Week, co-recs, the homecoming half-time show and fund raisers. For the first time a Basketball Spirit Week was planned the three days before the Queen of Courts crowning and dance.

Leadership also made signs and took various surveys for dances, student store, etc. to try and improve the school and its activities.

Also each member had a teacher who they had for a secret pal who they sent special greeting and gifts to during the year. The secret pals were revealed to the teachers at the end of the year.

Besides selling package deals and ASB cards, the leadership members sold candy canes and sponsored the Almond Roca sale. The ASB was also responsible for the moving of the student store to its new location next to the library and across from the FA Building.

Fourth row: John Reed, Lisa Miraz, Pam Carson, Lily Parato, Debi McCourt, Rosi Parato, Dan Grable, Becky Hughes, Gregg Webber.

Students' League was the largest organization on campus with approximately 60 members, in the second year of co-ed membership. They sold homecoming corsages and boutonnieres, making over $1,000 in sales. They were in charge of bands, backgrounds, photographers, caterors, and decorators for the co-ed, which they sponsor annually.

The four officers, and the senior girls who have worked their best, had the honor of sponsoring the Co-ed king candidates.

Each year, the Co-ed king candidates dress up in different clothes, put bags over their heads and model their legs for the Mr. Legs contest in the Little Theater. Each candidate wore a number and people put money in their numbered can. The candidate who had the most money in the can won the contest.

Another activity was choosing a special committee from Students' League to select the Students of the Month.

CSF, California Scholarship Federation, was an honorary club whose purpose was to recognize the academic achievers at Los Amigos. CSF had a membership of 53 people this year. CSF members were invited to Santa Ana College Dec. 12 for a special visit, and had a fund raising car rally Feb. 2. CSF night was Feb. 22 at Disneyland.

There were 10 sealbearers qualified at the beginning of the year, (a sealbearer is a person who has qualified for CSF membership for 5 semesters), which was more than in past years. Each sealbearer wore a gold braid at graduation and received a CSF gold seal on his diploma. All the sealbearers were honored at graduation for their hard work and dedication throughout their years at Los Amigos.

Reflector Recruits Largest

This year's yearbook staff was the largest in LA history with 24 staff members, seven photographers, and a cartoonist. Kimber Trammell, this year's editor, and Jeannette Jester went to yearbook camp in San Diego for a week. At camp they got new ideas to bring back to this year's staff. The first deadline came too soon (what do you mean you haven't started yet?) for new and old members alike. The new members were trying to learn everything and the old members were trying to remember everything. A cover had to be decided (what do you mean you want to change the theme?) and ads (we still don't have enough?) and yearbooks (nobody wants one this year) had to be sold. Walking by L-1 you might hear a staff member screaming, "I'm going to kill those photographers" or "Where is Ron? In the commons again!" and photographers screaming back, "Doesn't anyone know how to proportion!" The staff had to order pictures (it hasn't been taken yet?), make layouts (how many picas between pictures?), write copy (somebody help me. I don't know what to write!), get scores (I can't find the coaches!), make their final layout (it HAS to be in ink?), type up cutlines and copy (who knows this person? He HAS to go here!) and finally have Kimber, Pam Okamoto, assistant editor, or Mrs. Strauss, class advisor, ok everything (I did it ALL wrong?).

Photographers are kept busy taking pictures (nobody showed up!), developing negatives (whose finger prints are all over these negatives?) and printing pictures (it is NOT too blurry!).

Finally March rolls around (I knew we would make it) and our last deadline has gone in. Now the waiting comes, waiting for proofs to come back and be checked and then finally for the book it self.

First semester editor Becky Minick and advisor Carol Strauss.

This year's fifth period journalism class was the smallest in LA's history having only 13 in the class and it was operated by a staff of all girls, with the exception of the two photographers and the cartoonist.

Each Thursday before the paper came out the page editors went to the Composing Room in Costa Mesa to paste-up and re-arrange all the layouts, and make the final ok before the paper was printed. Almost every "Paw Print" student was a member of the CSPA (California Scholastic Press Association), which gave each member great advantages during the year. The first field trip was to Disneyland, next to NBC studios and then to the L.A. Times, to meet top professionals in the journalism field.

Journalism is one of the most competitive fields and the staff also finds it enjoyable. The LA "Paw Prints" class feels an easy way to get ahead is by being on the staff.

Sailing Club Sails at Newport

Sixteen students laid their lives on the line when they joined the all new Sailing Club. Hazards which they faced on their voyages were sharks, crashing waves, sudden storms, and, of course, their fellow sailors.

The president of the Club was Lisa Litteral. Other officers were Craig Young, Heidi Phillips and Susan Mackey. They were advised by eight faculty members.

They met each month at Newport Harbor and learned not only how to sail the boat, but learned the parts of the boat, safety rules, and about different types of boats.

At the end of the year they took a written test on safety. Once completed, those who passed went on to take a sailing test in the boat itself. If that test was passed, they became full-fledged sailors.

The club hoped to continue with a sailing voyage to Catalina Island during the summer.

This year's ski club consisted of 35 members. During Christmas vacation the ski club, along with chaperon Myra Deister, spent four days skiing the mountains of Provo, Utah. When they were off their skis they were catching a "flick" at the nearby theaters. On their last night there, a big dis-disco dance was held at the Star Palace, Utah's hottest disco. Future plans consisted of trips to Lake Tahoe in February and a trip was planned for Easter vacation. The ski club officers included senior Dave Acker president; sophomore Shauna Smith, vice-president; senior Leslie Monroe, secretary; and senior John Hughes, treasurer.

Early morning practices in cold wet grass, long bus rides to places never heard of, and countless hours practicing after school. What do you get? You get a chance to be in the Los Amigos Marching Lobo Band. The band provided both music and entertainment at our school games and assemblies. This year's band was one of the smallest in Los Amigos' history which didn't make an effect on their talent. The band was led by Mr. Jeff Janke and Drum Major Scott Pugh. The Band placed well in tournaments and made an impressive showing in numerous parades.

Mr. Shackleton, Chamber Choir Director.

Through 1979-80, the Los Amigos chamber choir brought music and Christmas cheer to the world around them.

They caroled at the district office and at many elementary schools. They also sang Christmas carols in South Coast Plaza and the City Mall. They sang in a festival at Azusa Pacific College and also performed in a festival in San Fransisco in the spring.

Performing at assemblies and football game half time shows were also a part of the drill team's duties.

Lobos Finish With 4-4 Record;

The Lobo squad had a successful season this year. Although they missed CIF, they were in the running until the last game. They also had one of their best years ever with a 4-4 record. The squad placed seniors John Hughes, Gregg Webber, and Ron Dahlke on 1st team All-league, and senior Carl Manfrates and junior Jim Terreri on 2nd. The squad's new coach this year was Dave Selph. He took the limited talent that the squad had and turned it into a winning team. He was disappointed, though, that he couldn't get the team into the CIF playoffs, and felt that the team had let down after losing a close game with Garden Grove 7-3.

A new team award was given this year called the "Art Wilcox Memorial". It was given in honor of the late Art Wilcox, who was a former student and player last year. The award was won by junior Mike Gomez.

Varsity Cross Country Ends Season

Our undefeated Cross Country team has had a great season this year. Cross Country Invitationals were held at Mt. Sac College, where top teams competed on a grueling hill coarse. The team was ranked as one of the top 10 teams in CIF and was led by all-county senior Mark Cunnert. Mark finished third at the Orange County Championships and also holds the league course record at 15:03. Our winning the league finals makes it the third year in a row.

The varsity team this year had an excellent season. They not only were rated 1st in CIF during the season, but they won their 4th consecutive league title, 5th in their history. The team also ended up 5th in CIF, losing to Santa Ynez in 3 overtimes by one goal. They felt if they could have won the game, they would have won CIF.

The team was headed by senior Bert Goris, who received 1st team All-league and 1st team All-CIF. But all the players on the team contributed much to their success. Junior Harold Wachter received 1st team All-league and 2nd team All-CIF. Others to receive All-league honors were senior Ken Johnson, juniors Mark Woods and Luis Perez, and sophomore Eric Fischbeck. But the whole team felt that the reason for their successful year was their veteran coach, Mike Scheisel. He set games with the tougher 3A and 4A teams, which got them ready for CIF play.

A new team award was given this year called the "Bart Whitfield Memorial". It was given in honor of the late Bart Whitfield, a former student and player on the team. The award was won by Harold Wachter.

This year the fight for the Garden Grove League title came down to the last game of the season. Coming into the game the Lobos were in second place behind the Aztecs which happened to be their opponent. Both teams played tough, but when it was over the Lobos not only won the game but also wound up co-champions of the G.G. League, both with a 11-1 record.

In the first round of C.I.F. the Lobos lost a hard fought battle to El Modena by a score of 50-51. The team wound up the season with an overall record of 17-6.

This year's team set a new league record by scoring 110 points in one game, breaking the previous record of 107 set by La Quinta. Clayton Olivier set a new school record for the most points in a game by scoring 47 points.

The league coaches selected Clayton Olivier and Rahn Thomas on the 1st Team All League, and Tyrone Myles was named on the 2nd Team All League. Coach Gene Sutherland was named Coach of the year of the G.G. League, and Clayton Olivier was chosen as the league's M.V.P. Wild & crazy class of '80

SENIORS

Our class of 1980 has always set high goals and achieved them. A rainbow was chosen as our class symbol for it represents hope, eternity, and a goal. Our class hopes to reach the legendary pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. The members of the class of 1980 have many things to be proud of, for we have set a good example for other classes to follow. Despite our small size, we pulled together for a spirit week victory. Our class excelled not only in athletics, but in academics as well. We have the most sealbearers that a graduating class from Los Amigos has ever had.

We are graduating into a brand new decade, into a world with many adversities to overcome. We hope that we have learned enough through our experiences here at Los Amigos to succeed in life and that the entire class of 1980 reaches their "pot of gold."

All steaks are not created equal.

Serving great steaks is no accident. And even if you've been eating at a lot of fine steakhouses, you may be in for a pleasant surprise at the Cask 'n Cleaver. From our "blind taste test," to hand-picking our meats, to serving only Corn Belt beef, to careful aging, to cutting your steak to order, to searing and sealing in natural juices and flavor, to really warm service, no one does more to serve you a better steak and great things to go with it than the Cask 'n Cleaver.

After seven long months of meeting unbelievable deadlines that we never thought we could meet, here is our final product as put together by 35 staff members, only six being returning veterans. I hope you get as much pleasure out of this book as we had putting it together. I also hope that this Reflector will bring back many wonderful memories of the year 1979-1980.

Great thanks go to Roberts Portraits, who took some of our more difficult pictures; to Doug (Hoot) Gibson, our sales representative, without whom we probably never would have had a cover; to Ron Dahlke, our cartoonist, for his great patience and wonderful drawings. A very special thanks to my very dear friend and advisor, Mrs. Carol Strauss; without her guidance none of this could have been possible.

Good luck class of 1980! May you roll into this new decade with ease!

Sincerely,

Kimber Trammell
